  - Established a unique voice in the NYC art community as creator of EFA Project Space, a multi-faceted art space investigating creative processes and the relationships between art and life;
    - Founded the first artist-residency that supports artists who work for arts institutions.
      - Artistic and curatorial concerns explore identity, translation, ethics and care.
  - Employs media, storytelling, and performance in an evolving interdisciplinary art practice.
    - Independent writer, mentor and consultant to artists.

Professional Experience

2018 – 2019 Remote Consultant “Doctor On-Call,” New York Foundation of the Arts.

- Providing one-on-one professional development mentorship to artists.

2018 – 2019 Artist Fellow, POLIN Museum of the History of Polish Jews. Warsaw, Poland.

- Researched and developed a performance and social engagement project, “Paulina,” investigating challenges of identity, translation, memory and place through the story of one woman.

2008 – 2018 Founder and Director, EFA Project Space Program, The Elizabeth Foundation for the Arts, New York, NY.

- Created, developed, and directed a socially responsive exhibition and event program as the public venue for EFA, an art institution and center for artists in Manhattan.
- Established an Advisory Committee, a curatorial review process, and represented the program in consortiums and conferences.
- Produced over forty exhibitions of local and international artists, including hundreds of performances, workshops, discussions and other public engagements, creating a platform for marginalized voices, and space to experiment and take risks.
- Supported the work of over 500 artists and independent curators.
- Fundraised for the program’s initiatives, receiving grants from The Lily Auchincloss Foundation, The Foundation for Contemporary Art, The Shelley and Donald Rubin Foundation’s Fund for Art and Social Justice, The Trust for Mutual Understanding, The National Endowment for the Arts, The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, among numerous others.

2010 – 2018 Founder and Director, SHIFT Residency, The Elizabeth Foundation for the Arts, New York, NY.

- Designed, implemented, evaluated and led a residency serving needs of artists who work for NYC arts organizations. The aim was to provide opportunities for artistic growth, while nurturing a creative life-balance between art, work and family commitments.
- Designed a structure specifically attuned to artist/arts-workers’ challenges for a cohort of seven artists each year, with a two-week studio intensive in the summer to jumpstart new projects, followed by a year of regular peer meetings, a retreat and a concluding collective exhibition.

2009 - 2011 Writer, Artyslant, New York, NY.

- Freelance writer covering contemporary art exhibitions and fairs in New York City.

2000 - 2008 Program Manager, International Print Center New York, New York, NY.

- Played an integral role in the development of the first seven years of this non-profit exhibition space dedicated to the appreciation and understanding of fine art printmaking.
- Manager of exhibition production, artists’ submissions, programs, website, and design.
- Worked closely with Executive Director on programmatic development and fundraising.

Select Artistic Projects

- 2018 – current PAULINA, a site-specific investigation of identity, translation, and memory, reimagining a woman's story of survival in World War II Poland. A collaboration with Polish artist, Patrycja Dołowy, and in cooperation with the POLIN Museum of the History of Polish Jews, with research support by the Jewish Historical Institute, and Festivalt. The work-in-progress and related events were presented at Festivalt, Kraków; Galicia Jewish Museum, Kraków; Instytut Teatralny, Warsaw; Jewish Historical Institute, Warsaw; Museum of the City of Kraków's Apteka pod Orłem; POLIN Museum, Warsaw.
- 2017- 2018 She is alone, performance-lecture acting as a bridge between two stories: Michelle had been investigating mysteries around her grandmother, when she found the survival account of an unknown ancestor, demonstrating how history does not rest. Presented by NurtureART, Brooklyn; Festivalt, Kraków, PL; and Foundation and Center for Contemporary Art, Prague, CR.
- 2016 - 2017 Ruins of Achelach, Multimedia performance summoning serendipitous elements: a déjà vu in a field; a religious craving; an overlooked report card that is very, very old; a letter drafted from the sky; a grandmother's cryptic message; a scotch sour; Poland; and possibly, falafel. A genealogical mystery as it unfolds, performed at the intersection of premonition, research and reanimation. Developed with and directed by Sarah Cameron Sunde, with assistant director, Jenna Rossman. Debuted at Dixon Place, NYC, October 15, 2016, with a restaging at Theaterlab, NYC on January 8, 2017.
- 2014 – 2016 COME BACK, an investigation between video archive and life, exploring the sagas of the artist's father, a once great motivational salesman. Through moments of private and public, live and virtual, present and past, a daughter explores the trials of "Lucky" Levy and his flirtations with the next big "comeback." Presented in various forms (from focus group to performance art to comedy show), at Abrons Art Center Experimental Theater, Dixon Place, the Elizabeth Foundation for the Arts (Conference Room), Magnet Theater, and Theaterlab (all New York, NY).
- 2010 – 2015 Search for Agent C, a campaign to make contact with a lost TV icon. Presented as a series of performance lectures, rituals, and body of related imagery and text, at Flux Factory (Queens), Glasshouse Gallery (Brooklyn), Gowanus Studio Space (Brooklyn), Le Poisson Rouge (Manhattan), Magic Future Box (Brooklyn), Pete's Candy Story (Brooklyn), Secret Project Robot (Brooklyn) and on the internet.
- 2011 – 2012 The Origin of Cornucopia Stromberg, a multimedia experience inspired by the healing vision of a young man named Stromberg. With original score by Anne Hege and Roddy Shrock. Performed at Spectacle Theater, Brooklyn; Machine Project, Los Angeles; and La Sala, Brooklyn.
